THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V.RAMULU

W.P.No.26762 of 2005

ORDER:

The only complaint of the petitioner is that the impugned order was passed at the instance of the 3rd respondent without putting the petitioner on notice. The impugned order also does not show any notice being served on the petitioner or anybody represented it. Further, while admitting the writ petition , this Court granted interim suspension. A vacate stay petition is filed except stating that the petitioner herein was aware of the proceedings, nothing has been asserted saying that the petitioner was served with a valid notice or anybody represented it. Thus, there is gross violation of principles of natural justice. Under those circumstances, the impugned orders are liable to be set aside and are accordingly set aside.

In the result, the writ petition is allowed and the matter is remitted to the 2nd respondent for fresh consideration after hearing both the parties. Till such time, status quo as on today shall be maintained.
